Recent tweets by Pope Francis @ Pontifex:

- Christian unity is not the fruit of our human efforts but a gift that comes from above.
- We invoke Christian unity because we invoke Christ. We want to live unity: we want to follow Christ and to live in His love.
- Peace is an "active virtue", one that calls for the engagement and cooperation of each individual and society as a whole.

3rd Sunday in Ordinary time (A)

A Week of Guided Prayer, 29th January- 4th February

Through the Office for Evangelisation and Ecumenism we have a number of Prayer Guides available to us who will facilitate a week of guided prayer in our Parish Grouping.

What is guided prayer?

This is a retreat with a difference – sometimes called a 'Retreat in Daily Life', or a 'Busy Person's Retreat', as you don't have to go away to a quiet, beautiful place to find God. It is a way of making a retreat in the midst of daily living, as by taking some quiet time each day on your own you are enabled to find God in your everyday life, in all its ups and downs.

Participants are invited to do two things every day for the week.

Firstly, to spend half an hour in personal prayer at home and secondly, to meet with a prayer guide for half an hour at an agreed time. The prayer guides will accompany you and guide you each day with short texts from the scriptures. You do not need to have any previous knowledge. There is a group session for all participants and prayer guides on the Sunday at the beginning of the week and on the Saturday at the end of the week.

Who are the prayer guides?

The guides are lay men and women, religious sisters, brothers and priests who are trained and qualified in spiritual guidance and experienced at helping people in their prayer life.

THE DEEP END The choice is ours

You may have heard this story before: 'An old Cherokee is teaching his grandson about life. "A battle is going on inside all of us," he said to the boy. "It is a terrible fight and it is between two wolves. One is evil – anger, envy, sorrow, regret, greed, arrogance, self-pity, guilt, resentment, inferiority, lies, false pride, superiority, and ego. The other is good – joy, peace, love, hope, serenity, humility, kindness, benevolence, empathy, generosity, truth, compassion, and faith. This same fight is going on inside you – and inside every other person, too." The grandson thought about it for a minute and then asked his grandfather, "Which wolf will win?" The old Cherokee simply replied, "The one you feed".'

In a way, it is as simple as that. Each one of us faces hundreds of choices every day. Mostly, they are minor decisions that may not seem important at the time. But they all add up to something. They make us the person we are. Do our choices make us the kind of person who follows Jesus, or the kind of person who goes in the opposite direction?

We can stay stuck where we are, repeating the same old patterns, or we can leave it all behind and choose a new path, like Peter, Andrew, James and John did. They were called, and they took decisive action. This initial choice to follow Jesus was reinforced and remade, day in and day out, during their discipleship journey, just as it is on ours. Exercise Dementia Prevention study:

A new study involving Trinity College Dublin seeks volunteers over 50 with mild memory problems to search for possible links between exercise and dementia prevention.

Do you have memory problems that don't interfere with your day-to-day function?
Are you becoming more forgetful?

Would you be interested in taking part in a 12 month exercise based research study?

Potential participants will be screened over the phone initially, and the researchers will link with candidates' GPs and carry out an exercise test to ensure they can take part. If you are interested and would like to receive more information, please contact a member of the research team: Email: Neuroexercise@tcd.ie Phone: 085-2239249
